IN MEMORIAM

John S. Taylor, Jr.

Menomonee Falls Police Department

Sworn: July 7, 1969

End of Watch: August 6, 1977

P.O. John Taylor, Jr. was assisting a State Patrol Officer, who was trying to stop a car for speeding. Officer Taylor, an eight year veteran of the Menomonee Falls Police Department, saw the suspect approaching on Menomonee Avenue and was attempting to turn his squad car around to assist the State Patrol and stop the suspect's vehicle. Taylor's squad car was struck broadside by the suspect's vehicle. Officer Taylor was thrown from his squad car and killed instantly.

FLAG DONATIONS

Thank you to Don and Barb Hilbert for donating an American flag and thank you to Police Unity Tour for donating a Thin Blue Line flag for the ceremony.
